On October 17–19, 2023, Institute of Oceanology, Chinese Academy of Sciences (IOCAS) and A.V. Zhirmunsky National Scientific Center of Marine Biology FEB RAS (NSCMB FEB RAS) will hold a bilateral workshop with main topic: Marine Biodiversity and Ecosystem in a Changing Ocean: toward Sustainable Development Goals in Qingdao, China. The workshop will combine oral and poster presentations, and discussions.

Participants of the workshop are invited to submit abstracts to be published in the Abstract Book; the strict deadline for abstracts – August 30. Abstracts up to one page long (no illustrations, no references) should be prepared in Microsoft Word format, body text in Times New Roman font with 12pt size. Please submit your abstracts as an e-mail attachment (with subject – “bilateral symposium China-Russia”) to Dr. Xiaoxia Sun (xsun@qdio.ac.cn). Russian participants, please, send abstract additionally (carbon copy) to Dr. Konstantin A. Lutaenko (lutaenko@mail.ru).

Whereas mostly staff members of the IOCAS and the NSCMB FEB RAS will be participants of the workshop, the Organizing Committee may invite other collaborating scientists from Russia and China to attend the workshop.

Venue of the workshop – Institute of Oceanology, Chinese Academy of Sciences.

Logistics will be explained in the Second Circular.
